BY THE FBI

Moss Point, Mississippi
December 13, 2012

UNKNOWN BANK ROBBERS

F250 truck reported stolen from AL

DESCRIPTION

Height: Robber 1: 5'8" Robber 2:
approximately 6'0"

Sex: Male

Age: 20 to 30 years of age

Clothing/Disguise: Both men were dressed in dark or camouflaged clothing and wore ski masks.

Vehicle Information: A white, 2013 Ford F-250 truck, displaying Alabama "farm" license plate 5F150300, reported stolen from Alabama, believed to be a "drop car" used by the two robbers was located at an unoccupied residence at 7308 Elder Berry Road, Moss Point, Mississippi. It was reported that a white truck pulled into this address and then another car, perhaps silver in color, departed the property soon thereafter. The license plate number of the departing vehicle belonged to another car reported stolen from Alabama.

Weapon Used: Handguns

Weight: Robber 1: stocky Robber 2:
thin

Race: Black

CAUTION

On December 13, 2012, two Black males, both armed with handguns, robbed the Merchants and Marine (M&M) Bank located at 7616 Highway 613, Moss Point, Mississippi. One man maintained control of the lobby area, which the other man went behind the counter and put money from several cash drawers in a white trash bag he carried with him. Investigation indicates this robbery crew may be from the Mobile, Alabama, area, and are possibly responsible for two similar, unsolved armed bank robberies in Jackson County, Mississippi over the past two years.
